Homo Noxius

100 question editorial questionnaire

4 November 2026

Complete this document offline and return the saved file when you have answered all 100 questions. Your answers will determine which proposed revisions we pursue, preserve or reject.

How to answer

For each question, type A, B, C, D or E in the Answer field. All fields are blank; nothing is preselected.

A is my recommendation. You can choose a different option without explanation, or select E and write your own answer in the field beneath it.

You may also use the E field to qualify a selected option, combine choices, defer a decision or state that another answer makes this question inapplicable. The field expands as you type.

The questions retain the numbering and choices from the chat questionnaire. Where a general decision and a specific answer conflict, I will flag the conflict rather than assume which one governs.

Complete the file in Word or another compatible word processor, save it as a DOCX and attach that completed file in chat. Printing and handwriting your answers is also possible.

Scope

Questions 1 to 5 set the revision mandate. Questions 6 to 90 address specific passages, mechanisms, character consequences and pacing. Questions 91 to 100 cover protected artistic choices, validation and the stopping condition.

Preparing this questionnaire changes no manuscript text. Any implementation follows your decisions, including your answer to Question 1.

Questions 001 to 003

001 After you answer this questionnaire, how should I proceed?

A Consolidate your decisions and flag conflicts before editing.
B Implement all clear decisions immediately; ask only about conflicts.
C Present proposed passages before making any edits.
D Treat the answers as discussion only; make no implementation plan.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

002 What should govern this revision when a reviewer's preference conflicts with our deliberate artistic choices?

A Preserve deliberate choices unless a concrete weakness is demonstrated.
B Prioritise agreement among the three reviewers.
C Prioritise the most demanding reviewer's objections.
D Reconsider every choice without giving earlier decisions special protection.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

003 How extensive should the next revision be?

A Precise repairs, followed by selective passage-level improvements.
B Revise the final six chapters substantially; keep the earlier chapters stable.
C Conduct another complete prose pass across all chapters.
D Correct only demonstrable factual and continuity defects.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 004 to 006

004 What should be the default policy on adding material?

A Add only where an existing consequence or causal connection is missing.
B Permit additions wherever they deepen an existing character.
C Allow new scenes and secondary threads if they improve the whole.
D Require every addition to be offset by a larger cut elsewhere.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

005 Should this revision have a numerical word-count reduction target?

A No quota: judge each addition and deletion by its effect.
B Aim for a modest net reduction of roughly 2–3%.
C Aim for a substantial net reduction of roughly 5–8%.
D Preserve the present length as closely as possible.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

006 Vigil currently says, "The enemy above us took four more days to die." The available evidence establishes the end of the attack, not every individual's death. What should the sentence assert?

A State when the attack ended, without certifying every death.
B Attribute the conclusion about their deaths to Sarah.
C Present it explicitly as what Kailan believed at the time.
D Retain the unqualified sentence.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 007 to 009

007 Should Sarah's subsequent statement that the camp was swallowed remain categorical?

A Keep it as her interpretation, clearly distinct from narrator-certified fact.
B Make her wording explicitly provisional.
C Limit her statement to what the instruments show.
D Remove her conclusion and retain only the end of the charges.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

008 Should the manuscript later establish what actually happened to the attacking force?

A Leave individual fates unresolved.
B Add a later, limited Shield observation of the camp site.
C Establish that some attackers survived.
D Establish that the entire attacking force died.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

009 What emotional emphasis should the end of the siege receive in Vigil?

A Let immediate survival work carry the response.
B Give the survivors one brief moment of relief.
C Give Kailan a brief, disturbing satisfaction.
D Introduce an immediate argument over the attackers' deaths.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 010 to 012

010 Whole's dismantling summary refers vaguely to "hot rock" after the firing works have been described as cold and broken. What should we do?

A Identify the surviving heat-bearing works precisely, after checking the intended layout.
B Remove the flooding example from the summary.
C Rewrite the earlier description so the conversion works retain dangerous heat.
D Leave the distinction implicit.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

011 Whole says draining "the reserve" would kill the wards, although Life Reserve and firing water have separate pipes. How should we handle this?

A Name the relevant reserve and the specific connection that makes the test dangerous.
B Delete this example rather than add an explanation.
C Explicitly revise the systems so the reserves are hydraulically connected.
D Retain the general wording.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

012 How much physical explanation should accompany the dismantling tests?

A One or two precise distinctions within the existing passage.
B A short practical exchange during one test.
C A fuller account of several attempted methods.
D Almost none: report the outcomes and move on.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 013 to 015

013 What should the eleven-day dismantling investigation establish?

A No safe immediate solution was found; the enquiry remains open.
B A solution may exist, but present resources cannot attempt it.
C The weapon is physically inseparable from the inhabited Mountain.
D The institution would rebuild the weapon regardless of physical removal.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

014 Should Ka-Dhavar's prediction that the institution would recreate itself remain a character's argument?

A Yes; keep it distinct from demonstrated engineering facts.
B Make Ka-Cheryn challenge that prediction more sharply.
C Let another character explicitly agree that it is likely.
D Present it as the narrator's settled conclusion.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

015 How should we address the relationship between "one firing in this machine" and the six historical firings?

A Have the characters identify the unanswered relationship explicitly.
B Establish that each firing required rebuilding the conversion works.
C Establish that extremely long natural recovery eventually permits another firing.
D Leave the relationship unaddressed.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 016 to 018

016 Where should the spent-machine versus repeated-firings question first be raised?

A Clock, immediately after the historical firing count is understood.
B Whole, during the dismantling investigation.
C Beast, before the present firing.
D In a later warning or framing document rather than the scenes.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

017 Who should first notice the apparent difficulty between one-use machinery and repeated firings?

A Sarah, because she follows the physical implications.
B Paul, because he compares the historical records.
C Ka-Cheryn, because Balance owns the relevant quantities and resources.
D Kailan, because he connects what different offices have said.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

018 How definite should the answer about future firing capability be?

A Distinguish known damage from unknown recoverability; give no timetable.
B Establish eventual recovery, but leave its timescale unknown.
C Establish that human reconstruction is necessary.
D Establish that this firing has permanently ended the capability.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 019 to 021

019 How should the reset relate to the weapon's condition?

A Explicitly separate institutional reset from physical rearmament.
B Let the reset begin preparations for eventual rebuilding.
C Make restoration of firing capability part of the reset instructions.
D Keep the relationship unstated.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

020 What should the warning about a future catastrophe mean if the current engine is spent?

A Preserve the warning against possible restored capability, without promising its return.
B Emphasise the danger of rebuilding the institution's weapon.
C Retain confident language as a revealing claim made by the institution.
D Replace the future-weapon warning with a warning about historical recurrence more generally.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

021 What is the right ambition for Clock's pale optical effect?

A Make the triggering action intelligible while leaving the effect unnamed.
B Explain the optical phenomenon and the mechanical release.
C Keep the entire event mysterious, including why the door opens.
D Replace the optical release with another form of discovery.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 022 to 024

022 What kind of action should ultimately open the hidden door in Clock?

A A physical action guided by what Kailan sees.
B The light itself activates the release through an established mechanism.
C Following the light reveals an ordinary concealed control.
D Leave the trigger exactly as it is now.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

023 Should the later optical discovery receive an earlier seed?

A Reuse an existing lesson or observation rather than add a new one.
B Add one very small anomaly during Kailan's earlier instruction.
C Add a distinct earlier demonstration with a delayed payoff.
D Keep the discovery wholly unseeded.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

024 Why should Kailan succeed where the initial search fails?

A Outside experience has loosened a habit of observation taught within Light.
B He takes a physical position the others have not tried.
C He combines observations supplied by several people.
D He possesses an unusual perceptual ability others lack.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 025 to 027

025 How much should Ka-Raedin reproduce of Kailan's optical observation?

A Enough to confirm it is observable rather than unique to Kailan.
B The whole observation and opening sequence.
C Only the final result; he cannot perceive the effect himself.
D Remove the independent confirmation.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

026 Should the reader understand the optical clue before the door opens?

A Understand what Kailan is testing, without necessarily predicting the result.
B Have enough evidence to solve the release before Kailan does.
C Understand the action only immediately after the opening.
D Remain uncertain even after the characters descend.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

027 How much additional space may Clock's optical clarification use?

A Replace existing explanation; add at most a few sentences.
B Allow roughly one short paragraph of net addition.
C Rebuild the entire discovery sequence if needed.
D Require the revised sequence to be shorter.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 028 to 030

028 How should the manuscript treat the planetary catastrophe's scientific status?

A Maintain one explicit speculative leap, with disciplined surrounding mechanics.
B Strengthen the claim that the catastrophe could occur under real physics.
C Make the mechanism more openly speculative and less technically detailed.
D Leave the current balance untouched.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

029 What should a technical review examine first?

A Coupling between the local source and the distant rupture.
B Local energy, water, heat and pressure accounting.
C The machinery's material survival and maintenance over deep time.
D The entire mechanism equally, without prioritisation.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

030 If technical review finds an unsupported claim beyond the intended speculative leap, what should we prefer?

A Narrow the claim or attribute the uncertainty.
B Redesign the relevant mechanism.
C Add explanatory material supporting the claim.
D Retain it as part of the novel's speculative premise.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 031 to 033

031 Should Oren receive an answer to his request for a lamp shift?

A Yes, in a short consequential return.
B Yes, but only through a brief reported outcome.
C Keep the request unanswered and make Kailan's failure to return explicit.
D Leave the current passage unchanged.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

032 Where should Oren's answer occur?

A Later in Vigil, within the existing ward work.
B During the investigations in Clock or Whole.
C Immediately before departure.
D In a short later report after Kailan has left.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

033 What answer should Oren initially receive about returning to lamp work?

A A limited arrangement that leaves him something to negotiate.
B A refusal based on a genuine shortage of ward workers.
C Permission to return, with a practical cost to someone else.
D No decision, forcing him to pursue the matter himself.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 034 to 036

034 What should Oren do with the answer?

A Set a practical condition based on his knowledge of the work.
B Refuse the proposed arrangement.
C Accept it without gratitude or a moral conclusion.
D Challenge the authority that reassigned him.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

035 How much should Kailan achieve for Oren?

A Carry the request and answer faithfully, without solving everything.
B Persuade Ka-Raedin to change the assignment.
C Fail to secure any improvement.
D Use his new standing to overrule the assignment.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

036 How much space should Oren's follow-through occupy?

A A short exchange of roughly 80–120 words.
B Two or three sentences.
C A fuller scene with the relevant office-holder present.
D A recurring thread across more than one chapter.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 037 to 039

037 Should Seal retain the repeated marked-sheep calculation immediately before Shield's deposition?

A Remove the repeated calculation; keep the room and evidence distinctions.
B Reduce it to a brief reference to the earlier lesson.
C Keep the calculation but remove its explanatory interpretation.
D Retain the passage unchanged.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

038 How explicit should the correspondence between Justice's rooms and the depositions remain?

A Let the room names and the questions establish it.
B Explain the correspondence once for the whole sequence.
C Keep a short explanation at each deposition.
D Make the correspondence more implicit by reducing the room reminders.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

039 Should the five mathematical problems be shortened?

A Shorten only repeated explanation around the necessary reasoning.
B Compress each problem to its decisive step.
C Preserve all calculations but shorten the surrounding movement.
D Preserve the entire problem sequence as written.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 040 to 042

040 What should we cut first in the early instructional chapters?

A Explanations that repeat a distinction already demonstrated.
B Worked examples once their principle is understood.
C Interview interruptions that explain the lesson's relevance.
D Nothing until a reader identifies an exact confusing or tedious passage.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

041 In Mirror, what should determine whether an instructional exchange stays?

A It changes a live question, action or relationship.
B It establishes a fact needed later.
C It offers an interesting idea even without later consequence.
D Keep the current instructional balance regardless of these tests.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

042 In Oasis, where should any compression come from first?

A Repeated interpretation around concrete encounters.
B Procedural explanation of how the community works.
C Comparative conversation about the outside world.
D Do not compress Oasis.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 043 to 045

043 In Mountain, how should scientific learning and the frame's wager be balanced?

A Preserve both, removing only explanations that duplicate their implications.
B Give more space to Kailan's pleasure in discovery.
C Give more space to the manipulation and surveillance behind the lessons.
D Reduce the frame's wager to foreground Mountain life.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

044 Shadow can feel arranged around a single argument about knowledge and trust. What should we test?

A Remove transitions that explicitly announce the shared meaning of its episodes.
B Simplify one of the instructional episodes.
C Give one existing interaction a less tidy outcome.
D Preserve the deliberate arrangement.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

045 What should be the first compression target in Reggane?

A Repeated investigative or logistical explanation.
B Historical background not immediately needed for a decision.
C Interview commentary between stages of the investigation.
D Do not shorten Reggane.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 046 to 048

046 Which aspect of Reggane most needs protection during compression?

A The personal costs of Sarah's decisions to other people.
B The historical and technical specificity.
C The gradual acquisition of evidence.
D Sarah's retrospective interpretation of what she became.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

047 If Reggane still feels slow after removing repetition, what next?

A Reorder existing information around consequential decisions.
B Shorten the investigative itinerary.
C Add one more immediate confrontation.
D Accept the slower investigative rhythm.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

048 What should govern revision of Infiltration?

A Give negotiations and decisions more weight than their explanatory bridges.
B Make Sarah's account substantially more concise.
C Expand the direct encounter with Shield.
D Preserve the current balance.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 049 to 051

049 Which Infiltration element must not be reduced to make Sarah's success seem easier?

A Preserve Martinez's work and Amastan's independent authority together.
B Prioritise Martinez's infiltration and preparation.
C Prioritise Amastan's control of access.
D Prioritise Sarah's negotiation with Ka-Xhian.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

050 How explicitly should Infiltration explain Sarah's resulting power?

A Let concrete concessions and subsequent actions carry most of it.
B Retain one clear retrospective statement of its extent.
C Keep the full institutional explanation.
D Make her ambition more explicit than it currently is.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

051 Should Horizon's pregnancy-revelation sequence retain its present quantity of comedy?

A Test removing or delaying one comic afterbeat.
B Keep the comedy intact.
C Reduce the sequence to one joke after the initial shock.
D Make the sequence almost entirely serious.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 052 to 054

052 Where should Horizon’s strongest joke land relative to Kailan’s breakdown?

A After enough interruption for the hurt to register.
B Immediately, making the others’ discomfort or insensitivity unmistakable.
C Before he returns to the room.
D After he has chosen to resume his account.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

053 How should Sarah’s conduct during Kailan’s breakdown read?

A Controlled and imperfectly considerate, without becoming his therapist.
B More protective than she currently appears.
C Deliberately cold or impatient.
D Openly amused by his romantic humiliation.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

054 How far should Urs’s intervention go?

A One recognisable excess, stopped before it takes over the scene.
B Keep the full comic escalation.
C Make him awkwardly supportive rather than provocative.
D Remove him from this interruption.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 055 to 057

055 What should close Kailan's pregnancy-revelation interruption?

A His concise recognition that his imagined relationship was false.
B A more explicit acknowledgement of Sheva's independent desire.
C An unresolved hurt rather than a polished conclusion.
D Keep the current closing exactly.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

056 What should be shortened first in Mock?

A Discussion that continues after a practical decision has been settled.
B Preparations for travel.
C Interpretation of the surveillance evidence.
D Do not shorten Mock.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

057 How should Mock's Shadow ceremony relate to the urgency of departure?

A Remain a private, bounded interruption with real practical importance.
B Become shorter and almost improvised.
C Receive more space as Paul's decisive commitment.
D Be integrated into the preparations rather than separated from them.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 058 to 060

058 Should Mock acquire an additional obstacle to increase dramatic pressure?

A No; use the risks already established.
B Allow an existing logistical difficulty to resist resolution longer.
C Add a disagreement over who should go.
D Add a new external development forcing immediate departure.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

059 How extensive should the dialogue-voice pass be?

A Restrict it to passages where speakers share the same argument and cadence.
B Review every interview-room exchange.
C Review every spoken line in the final six chapters.
D Avoid a separate voice pass.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

060 When Paul sounds too polished, what should replace the polish?

A A more literal question, evidentiary distinction or correction.
B Hesitation and incomplete sentences.
C Greater personal enthusiasm or impatience.
D Nothing: his fluency is appropriate to his intelligence.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 061 to 063

061 When Sarah sounds interchangeable with the others, what should distinguish her?

A Decisions about ownership, resources and responsibility.
B More clipped commands.
C More personal admissions.
D Sharper humour and contempt.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

062 How should the Keepers' voices differ?

A Through the evidence and consequences their offices attend to.
B Through distinct sentence lengths and speaking rhythms.
C Through more individual temperament and personal history.
D Keep their shared formal register dominant.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

063 What should happen to an exchange in which two characters state the same conclusion?

A Keep the stronger turn unless the repetition changes their relationship.
B Make the second speaker disagree.
C Replace the second turn with a practical consequence.
D Retain agreement as part of the conversation's rhythm.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 064 to 066

064 In Seal, what should restore urgency when procedure becomes absorbing?

A An existing physical constraint affecting what someone can do.
B Brief reminders of the siege outside.
C More visible injury and fatigue.
D No reminders: the procedural concentration is the intended tension.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

065 How much physical interruption should occur during the depositions?

A Only where it changes access, time, hearing or a decision.
B Occasional interruptions to keep the setting present.
C One substantial interruption in the sequence.
D None; preserve their controlled formal progression.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

066 Should Seal's existing alternative to firing be made more prominent?

A Check its visibility, but add nothing unless readers actually miss it.
B Have Paul restate it immediately before the ruling.
C Give an opposing character a stronger defence of it.
D Leave its current presentation untouched.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 067 to 069

067 What should the reader understand most clearly about Seal's ruling?

A Lawful authorisation does not prove the chosen act inevitable.
B The institution has followed its own procedure faithfully.
C The procedure has been manipulated toward a desired outcome.
D Keep all three possibilities equally unresolved.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

068 Which technical material in Beast should be protected first?

A Anything determining capability, refusal or irreversibility.
B The physical scale and sensory experience of the machinery.
C The division of expertise among offices.
D Preserve all current technical detail.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

069 Should Paul's physical decision to offer Ka-Elun's reel receive more time?

A Keep it unless a fresh reader still finds the choice too fluent.
B Add a small physical hesitation, without another explanatory speech.
C Give him one explicit final question before offering it.
D Make the offer more immediate and confident.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 070 to 072

070 During Beast, how often should the surviving alternative be recalled?

A At the decisive choice, without repeated reminders.
B At each major point where refusal remains possible.
C Only when the alternative is first established.
D Let an opponent continue pressing it through the sequence.
Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]
E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

071 What can be shortened in Clock's authentication sequence?

A Summaries repeating that independent checks agree.
B The detail of the maintenance records.
C The detail of the stellar check.
D Nothing; preserve the full evidentiary accumulation.
Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]
E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

072 How should Clock present the approximately 145,000-year age?

A Preserve the conditional conclusion and the limits of the stellar check.
B State the age more decisively after the checks.
C Make the uncertainty more prominent.
D Avoid a single headline age and emphasise the accumulated spans.
Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]
E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 073 to 075

073 How much pause should separate Clock's age revelation from the next discovery?

A A brief concrete response, without another interpretation of deep time.
B More room for Paul's archaeological astonishment.
C More room for Kailan's disorientation.
D Move directly onward at the current pace.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

074 What should be the first target in Whole's crowded succession of decisions?

A Interpretive summaries repeated between necessary decisions.
B Transitional movement between locations.
C The dismantling investigation.
D The detailed custody and departure arrangements.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

075 May we reorder existing sections within Whole?

A Yes, if causality and the final punitive echo remain intact.
B Only within individual scenes.
C Yes, including moving material into earlier chapters.
D No; improve the present order locally.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 076 to 078

076 How should Paul's decision to remain in the Mountain be handled in this pass?

A Preserve the current earned decision and living outcome.
B Shorten his explanation while keeping the same outcome.
C Give him a stronger positive statement of the life he wants.
D Reopen the outcome itself.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

077 What should the completed wall primarily leave with the reader?

A Accurate responsibility, followed by a life that still has to be lived.
B Paul's devotion to the Mountain.
C His attempt at repentance.
D The inadequacy of testimony after catastrophe.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

078 Should we test a shorter version of Whole's abstract paragraph about desired obedience?

A Yes, alongside the current version; choose after comparison.
B No; preserve the author-approved paragraph.
C Yes, with the explicit intention of cutting it substantially.
D Replace the abstract paragraph with dialogue.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 079 to 081

079 Which distinction is indispensable in the paragraph about desired obedience?

A Real authority can reward enforcement of rules that constrain the authority-holder.
B People can be made to desire what confines them.
C Parents transmit the system while seeking their children's safety.
D All of these must remain equally explicit.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

080 How should the analysis of desired obedience relate to Kailan's later failure to understand Sheva's punishment?

A Trust the contradiction to emerge without commentary.
B Add a faint verbal echo between the passages.
C Have another character expose his inconsistency.
D Reduce the contradiction by making Kailan recognise the punishment.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

081 Do outside lives need greater presence relative to the Mountain's richly depicted inhabitants?

A Test whether an existing outside life needs a stronger consequence, without adding a subplot.
B No; the unequal attachment is part of the novel's effect.
C Yes; develop one existing outside person before the catastrophe.
D Yes; add a brief new outside viewpoint.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 082 to 084

082 If an outside life gains more weight, how should that weight enter the story?

A Through a practical obligation or decision it imposes.
B Through an existing relationship's ordinary details.
C Through a more sustained response to a received report.
D Through a direct argument against the firing.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

083 How should Paul's unknown family losses affect his position?

A Keep the uncertainty and concern without forcing a recantation.
B Let uncertainty visibly weaken his defence of the firing.
C Let him defend the firing even more explicitly despite that uncertainty.
D Reduce the family references so they do not dominate the debate.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

084 Should the outside-victim revision seek moral balance between Paul and his opponents?

A No; strengthen lived consequences without engineering an equal debate.
B Give Sarah an equally forceful sustained counterargument.
C Let Kailan decisively reject Paul's position.
D Let Paul answer the objections more completely.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 085 to 087

085 Does Knocks need more emotional space before the account resumes?

A Test the transition first; add only if the consequence currently passes too quickly.
B Add a brief personal reaction from Kailan.
C Add a brief reaction from Sarah or Paul.
D No; keep it a relatively low-amplitude connective chapter.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

086 What must remain provisional at the end of Knocks?

A Operator, state and purpose; the later investigation supplies attribution.
B The nature of the sounding itself.
C Only the precise intention behind an already identified operation.
D Keep the current distribution of certainty exactly.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

087 Should Sela's injured knee receive another practical consequence before departure?

A Only if an existing task can carry it economically.
B Yes; add an adjusted support or crutch.
C Yes; make it change the departure plan.
D No; her bodily condition is already sufficiently present.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 088 to 090

088 If we strengthen Sela's practical agency, what should she do?

A Direct an adjustment to how she moves or carries her share.
B Refuse assistance that is unhelpful.
C Ask for assistance on her own terms.
D Change the group's route or timetable.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

089 Does the book need one pleasure that does not become a lesson, mechanism or later payoff?

A First protect the existing examples; add nothing unless they are insufficient.
B Add a small disagreement over a game or music.
C Add a moment of private, unproductive enjoyment.
D No; the existing pleasures should remain connected to the larger design.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

090 Should we add another practical apprenticeship moment for Paul?

A No; the pot-mender and millwright already establish the direction.
B Add a small correction showing why an exact replacement does not fit worn machinery.
C Show Paul making a minor useful contribution.
D Show a failure that does not resolve into a lesson.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 091 to 093

091 How should we handle the Arthas reference after the mixed reviewer response?

A Preserve the deliberately chosen opening and assess only nearby excess.
B Move the reference later within the same exchange.
C Retain the reference but change its wording.
D Remove it.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

092 Should Ravar's poem be reopened for revision?

A No; protect it during this pass.
B Permit a separate read-aloud cadence pass without changing its substance.
C Permit selective compression of explanatory verse.
D Reconsider form, order and substance broadly.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

093 What should a first reader understand about Sheva's ending?

A Punishment will occur, while recipient, method and timing remain uncertain.
B Understand only that she remains in serious danger.
C Understand the likely kind of punishment, without seeing it carried out.
D Know precisely what has been decided.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 094 to 096

094 If readers miss the connection between Festival's prayer and Sheva's farewell, where should we intervene?

A Strengthen the earlier wording's memorability, without explaining the ending.
B Add a faint intermediate echo.
C Strengthen the farewell's verbal repetition.
D Accept that some readers will miss it.
Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]
E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

095 How should the approved account be distinguished from Kailan's later additions?

A Test comprehension first; clarify once only if necessary.
B Clarify the distinction in Whole.
C Clarify it in the framing documents.
D Leave the current distinction untouched.
Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]
E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

096 What should happen when an externally attributed quotation cannot be verified?

A Convert it to a clearly identified paraphrase or remove the attribution.
B Remove the quotation entirely.
C Retain it as a character's explicitly uncertain recollection.
D Keep it if the wording is well established in secondary sources.
Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]
E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Questions 097 to 099

097 How extensive should the source-of-knowledge audit be?

A Check consequential assertions without adding routine source reminders.
B Audit every narrated factual assertion.
C Restrict it to the final six chapters.
D Correct only the already identified Vigil sentence.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

098 What should the final production check include?

A Mechanical text checks followed by visual inspection of the complete PDF.
B Mechanical text checks only.
C Visual inspection of changed chapters only.
D Leave production checks until external-reader feedback is complete.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

099 How should the next memoryless evaluation be prompted?

A Read independently, record confusion, distinguish defects from preferences, then score.
B Use the same prompts as these three reports for comparison.
C Ask specifically whether the revised weaknesses have been repaired.
D Ask for the strongest case against submission readiness.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]

Question 100

100 What should count as a stopping condition for this revision cycle?

A The agreed repairs work, and no consequential contradiction remains demonstrated.
B At least two fresh evaluations reach a score threshold you specify.
C A fresh evaluation recommends no further substantive changes.
D Continue refining until you personally feel the manuscript is finished.

Answer [Type A, B, C, D or E]

E Other or your own wording [Write here if needed]